

Encroachment Ordinance

In reference to the purposed Encroachment ordinance:

ORDINANCE NO. # 081104A

AN ORDINANCE ADOPTING AN ENCROACHMENT ORDINANCE WITHIN THE SERVICE AREA OF KANOSH TOWN, UTAH

It shall be unlawful to erect or maintain any building or structure, which encroaches on any public road, street, street right-of-way, alley or other public property.

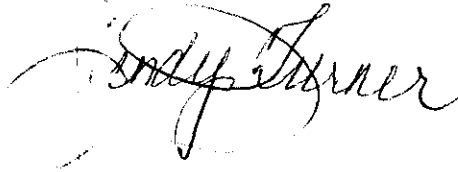

(1) It shall be unlawful to park or place personal property, which includes but is not limited to RV trailers, utility trailers, unlicensed vehicles, livestock trailers, livestock feed, or firewood for storage purposes upon any public road, street, street right-of-way, or alley for more than fourteen (14) consecutive days. Personal property in violation of this ordinance may be impounded and removed by Kanosh Town Corporation. The cost of impoundment and removal shall be charged to the owner or person who claims the impounded property.

(2) It shall be unlawful to park any commercial diesel truck, which requires the continual operation of any motors including refrigeration units in residential areas. Temporary parking of commercial diesel trucks with no motors running may be allowed on street right-of way (not pavement) in residential areas if it does not obstruct a motorist' view of an intersection.

PASSED AND ADOPTED BY THE TOWN COUNCIL OF KANOSH TOWN, STATE OF UTAH, ON THIS 15th DAY OF September 2004.

KANOSH TOWN

Council member Scott Corry motioned to adopt Ordinance No #081144A, An Ordinance adopting an encroachment ordinance within the service area of Kanosh Town, Utah, Council member Liz Whitaker seconded, all in favor.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Scott Corry", is written over a faint, circular official stamp.